Mussolini Demands Entire Powers in Office He is Holding.

FASCISTI WILL STAY

Socialist and Communist Members are Silent in Parliament

Rome, Nov. 17.—Warning his adversaries that the Fascist government had come to stay, Benito Mussolini made his first appearance before parliament as premier and announced his foreign and internal policies.

Mussolini affirmed the Fascists' strength to enforce law and order against one and all, even against an illegal coup by his own followers, and demanded full powers and full responsibilities.

The Fascist leader proclaimed a policy of action, not words. He himself set an example for he spoke for only half an hour, and frequently was applauded.

The Socialists and Communists, numbering 118, who have greeted each succeeding government with violent and noisy demonstrations of opposition, sat in the chamber silent and subdued. Old leaders, like Giolitti, Orlando, Salandra, Facta and Bonomi saw their power wrested from them; they were relegated to second place without uttering a single objection.

That Mussolini intends to reach a quick vote was indicated when he refused to permit the 55 orators inscribed on the lists as intending to speak on the government's communication to take the floor. There are many who believe that the premier will force the chamber to a vote as soon as the minister of the treasury, Professor Tangorra, has developed the details of the fiscal and bureaucratic reforms on the Fascist program.

The points of the premier's speech meeting with special approval were his declaration that he did not need a majority in parliament, his tribute to the king, his reference to the army and his insistence upon order and tranquility in the country.

WHEELER DENIES INTEREST FAILS IN ENFORCEMENT

Head of Anti-Saloon League Replies to Statement Attributed Harding

Washington, Nov. 17.—If President Harding has been writing letters to people saying that public sentiment is shifting around towards liberalization of the prohibition laws, he is all wrong, Wayne B. Wheeler, generalissimo of the Anti-Saloon League, said today.

"I do not believe," said Wheeler, "that the letter justified the statement printed concerning it because there is no evidence that public sentiment is shifting against prohibition."

"Ohio voted against 2.75 per cent beer by 188,000. The state legislature of Ohio is drier than ever, California voted for an enforcement code."

"The next flank movement of the opposition is to ask for a scientific commission to determine what is intoxicating liquor. With 42 states prohibiting one half per cent liquor and with two states with a one per cent standard, Congress could not legalize the sale of even 1-2 per cent beer in 46 states of the union. Public sentiment today is stronger than ever for the 18th amendment and the necessary legislation to enforce it."

The White House today continued to decline to make public the letters on the prohibition question which President Harding has written to Mrs. Corinne Robinson, and to E. C. Stokes, Republican state chairman of New Jersey.

MRS. CLARA PHILLIPS IS SEEKING NEW TRIAL

Los Angeles, Nov. 17.—Mrs. Clara Phillips, convicted of second degree murder for beating Mrs. Alberta Meadows to death with a hammer, denied, will appeal from the verdict, will seek a new trial and if that is it was announced by Bertram A. Harrington, her attorney. "There is a fatal error in the record and finally Clara Phillips will be freed," Harrington said. "I will not quit the fight until she is."

TO ASK INDICTMENTS

Cleveland, Nov. 17.—Prosecutor Edward C. Stanton, will go before the grand jury next Monday and ask the indictment of perhaps a dozen or more persons connected with the circulation of petitions asking for the recall of Mayor Fred Kohler, he announced today.

Policy Of Tranquility Is Started For Great Britain

Overwhelming Defeat of Lloyd George's Candidates Subject of Great Interest In England—Election Ruin of Former Policies.

London, Nov. 17.—Supported by a Tory majority of at least 80 in the House of Commons, Premier Andrew Bonar Law settled down today to put his policy of "tranquility" fully into effect. His first official act was to despatch Lord Curzon, British foreign secretary, to France to cement closer the Anglo-French entente and make preliminary arrangements for the Near East peace conference.

ALLEGED MURDER TRUST IS PROBED

So startling have become the "poison dinner murders," alleged to involve Mrs. Tillie Klimk and Mrs. Nellie Sturmer Konlik, now estimated at twelve, that Assistant State's Attorney William McLaughlin, of Chicago, has been directed to devote his entire time to the case. The so-called Chicago murder trust was composed of women, who carefully worked out diabolical murders with arsenic. Mrs. Klimk has declared Mrs. Konlik supplied her with poison.

WILL TRY SULTAN ON CHARGE THAT HE BETRAYED COUNTRY

Turkish Nationalist Assembly to place Former Official on Stand

London, Nov. 17.—Sultan Mohammed VI fled from Turkey today on a British warship, according to a news agency dispatch from Constantinople.

The sultan took refuge on a British warship in the golden horn, which later steamed for Malaya, the British naval base in the Mediterranean.

Violence was reported from Constantinople. Hussein Hilmi, leader of the Turkish socialist party, was assassinated.

As the sultan went on board the Malaya he said he was not abdicating the throne but was merely going to a place of safety. The allied high commissioners feared the ruler would be assassinated.

Mohammed VI said he did not recognize the Angora decree abolishing the sultanate.

Constantinople, Nov. 17.—The Turkish Nationalist Assembly has decided to place the Sultan Mohammed VI, on trial along with his ministers on the charge of betraying Turkey, according to a dispatch from Angora today.

The sultan is at present under the protection of the allies and is guarded by British soldiers. The manner of applying the assembly's decision and the date of the trial were not explained in the telegram.

It was stated, however, that the accusations would be based upon certain telegrams received in Angora from the Grand Vizier. There is a possibility that the Kemal government will send a note to the allies making a formal request that Mohammed VI be surrendered.

Rafet Pasha, representative in Constantinople of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, continues to give the allied high commissioners much trouble. He has apparently adopted a "policy of annoyance."

PARTY MEETING ON SHIP BILL MAY BE CALLED

Republican Solons Would Consider Proposed Measure.

OPPOSITION DEVELOPS

Effort to Rush it Through House Would Be Opposed.

Washington, Nov. 17.—President Harding today presented to the cabinet the tentative draft of his message to the special session of Congress, which he is expected to deliver at the capitol in person Tuesday afternoon.

Only a few minor details remained to be cleared up before the message is ready for final presentation, it was said. The president is anxious to secure approval of his cabinet to the draft before putting it in final form.

The message is said to be short, but forceful and deals almost exclusively with the merchant marine act, to which the administration is pledged. Other legislative matters will be discussed only in a perfunctory manner.

Mr. Harding feels very hopeful the ship subsidy can be passed before March, despite the strong opposition expected to be launched against it, and especially.

Washington, Nov. 17.—In Republican quarters there was a suggestion that the ship subsidy bill might be passed along for determination by a party conference.

Reports that the house merchant marine committee, which framed it, would ask for a rule giving it the right of way, without opportunity for consideration of any amendments except those presented by the committee itself, provoked some outspoken opposition within the party.

This bridge, however, has not been reached. The rules committee early next week will be asked to give the bill privileged status, but it was said there had been no agreement as to form.

The tariff bill was passed by the house under an air-tight rule preventing any except committee amendments and the customary motion to recommit. Some of the Republicans from the middle west states are reported to have declared opposition to that sort of a rule for the shipping bill, and it was because of these expressions that the suggestion for a conference was broached.

Representative Mondell, the Republican leader, discussed the legislative program with the president, but Mr. Mondell said the principal measures to be taken up at the special and regular session were ship subsidy, appropriations, rural credits and possibly some changes in the transportation act.

The appropriation bills will not be ready until the December session. First of these will be the treasury bill, with its appropriation for prohibition enforcement, over which there may be a lively fight, depending on the amount to be provided by Chairman Madden's committee.

UNVEIL MONUMENT WITH IMPRESSIVE SERVICES FRIDAY

Impressive ceremonies marked the unveiling of the monument recently erected in honor of Dr. Warren C. Hewitt for 17 years physician at the O. S. and S. O. Home, Friday afternoon at that institution.

The monument, a beautiful piece of work stands near the hospital and fittingly commemorates the work of the physician who gave so much of his time and energy to the progress of the state institution.

The ceremonies started at two thirty o'clock and were held on the occasion of the 17th annual meeting of the Volunteer Visiting and Consulting Staff of the Institution, in session at the Home Friday.

The ceremonies in connection with the unveiling of the monument followed the regular business session and banquet of the members of the physicians' staff, their wives, and the officials of the Home.

Headed by the O. S. and S. O. Home band, the entire assembly gathered at the monument at 2:30 o'clock, where the ceremonies were opened with a song by the Girls' choir, followed by prayer by the Rev. W. H. Tifford, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church. The dedication was in charge of Dr. W. A. Galloway of this city, who made a short address at the time of the unveiling.

The tablet was covered with the American flag, which at the proper signal was raised and suspended over the monument. The memorial, a large bronze tablet, 12 by 18 feet, was inscribed with the words, "Erected to the memory of Dr. W. C. Hewitt."

STEEL MAGNATE OPPOSES WORLD ECONOMIC MEET

Charles M. Schwab Declares It is Not Up to the United States to Act.

NO ALLIANCES HERE

Business is Bound to Improve as Underlying Principles Sound.

Washington, Nov. 17.—While business conditions in the United States and throughout the world generally are unsettled because of uncertainty over the European situation, it is nevertheless not up to the United States to call any world economic conference such as has been proposed from time to time, Charles M. Schwab steel magnate said today in an interview with a International News Service correspondent.

"I am a firm believer," said the millionaire steel head, "in the principles laid down by the men who founded this country of no entangling alliances abroad."

In opposing any general conference for the settlement of the world's industrial ills, Schwab takes a position directly opposite to that of Judge Gary, head of the U. S. Steel corporation who in an address to a gathering of steel men a few weeks ago advocated the calling of such a conference by President Harding.

"This nation," said Schwab, "is endowed with great natural resources which we should turn into gold. And while I believe we should adopt a helpful attitude toward other nations, I do not believe we should take a position of being responsible along with that helplessness."

The immediate passage of the ship subsidy bill by Congress will give a great impetus to American business, Schwab believes. He said his own company, the Bethlehem Steel Company, was forced to give contracts abroad to foreign ships to carry iron ore because there were no American ships available.

Schwab said he was unable to understand why the West and the Midwest, the great grain belt of the country, is opposed to the ship subsidy.

"The margin between good business and bad business," he said, "is only a few per cent. Exports can furnish this margin, and a strong and resourceful merchant marine would make a tremendous difference in the aspect of American business."

Schwab said he was a business optimist. Although conditions both here and abroad are now somewhat unsettled because of European uncertainty, and the uncertainty here at home as to what Congress is going to do, "the underlying principles of American industry are sound and business is bound to improve," he said.

Schwab came to Washington today to appear before the Federal Trade Commission which is investigating the fairness of the Pittsburgh base system of fixing prices on steel.

EX-AMBASSADOR TO FRANCE W. G. SHARP DIES AT ELYRIA

Death Comes Friday Noon and is Caused by High Blood Pressure

Elyria, O., Nov. 17.—Former Ambassador William Graves Sharp died at his home here at 12 o'clock this noon following a short illness.

Mr. Sharp died of high blood pressure.

Mr. Sharp was United States ambassador to France under the Wilson administration and during the world war.

His entire family was at his bedside when the end came and after summoned specialists had given up hope. High blood pressure was given as the cause of his death.

He served as prosecuting attorney of Lorain County and congressman for three terms from this normally Republican district despite being a Democrat. He was born in Mount Gilead, O., March 29, 1859. He is survived by the widow, and five children: George, William Jr., Baxter, Margaret and Effie.

He was made the first chief of the diplomatic corps of Europe. He served for five years during the world war as ambassador to France and did considerable work among the war sufferers as did the widow and members of the family.

Aviation was the hobby of the deceased diplomat. He has large mining interests and a large amount of real estate in Lorain and Elyria.

He resigned as ambassador to France about a year after the world war ended. He had been writing a series of books on his diplomatic experiences during the world war. Since resigning as ambassador his health has been failing and three months spent in Europe during the past summer failed to bring the desired results. He has been seriously ill but for a few days and the end came rapidly.

One of the most sensational trials of recent years was the suit instituted in Boston by Attorney John F. Sheehan to prove that Dorothy Davis Gordon, $500,000 heiress of the estate of Frederick

Mrs. Peterson had been in failing health for the past year, and had been in this city for the past two weeks.

Mrs. Peterson was before her marriage Miss Lida Maxey of this city, and was well known in this vicinity. Her marriage to Mr. Peterson took place eight months ago in this city, and since that time they have resided near Muncie.

CITY SOLICITORS ASKED FOR TRAFFIC CODE SUGGESTIONS

Letter Sent Out in Attempt To Provide Way to Lessen Accidents

Columbus, Nov. 17.—Attorney General Price has sent a letter to city solicitors of various municipalities in Ohio, asking them to make suggestions for uniform traffic regulation, in an effort to reduce the dangers of auto travel. His letter follows:

"A meeting of the city solicitors of the various municipalities throughout the state is contemplated for the purpose of securing some suitable legislation to meet and, as far as possible, cure the evils of the automobile traffic."

"It has been suggested that a uniform code be adopted which, if not especially applicable to all of the cities, would at least furnish the ground work for their action and activity along the line desired. I am writing to you to ask whether or not within the course of the next week you would submit to me such ideas and suggestions as you may have bearing on this subject. It occurs to me that some tentative program should be arranged in advance, so that time would be saved and the matters at hand be expedited as much as possible."

Nov. 17—Harry Townsey

Leaders among the 141 Laborites elected to Commons said they would support all peace measures. They are threatening, however, to introduce at an early date measures calling for the nationalization of the coal mines and the railroads.

The feature of the election—a subject still under discussion in political clubs—was the overwhelming defeat of Premier Lloyd George's candidates. The new Parliament will meet on Monday. The new members will be sworn in Monday and Tuesday. There are three women among them.

It is anticipated that within the next few weeks, the defeated ministers will be elected to Commons through pre-arranged retirements. The Laborites will make a strenuous effort to secure the election of Arthur Henderson.

Supporters of Lloyd George will endeavor to obtain the election of Winston Churchill, who was defeated by the Dundee socialists.

The Daily Express, chief opponent of Lloyd George, in commenting upon the result said:

"It spells absolute ruin of Lloyd Georgeism."

Returns compiled at noon showed the following elected:

Tories 342; Laborites 141; Lloyd George Liberals 59; Asquith Liberals 51; others 12. Constituencies not yet counted 10.

The automobile is still heaping up its dead.

Statistics gathered from a number of cities covering the first nine months of the year show no apparent falling off from the death registration in the United States last year due to auto accidents.

Figures compiled here today give evidence that the death rate due to auto accidents is still high. Last year saw an increase of 1,065 deaths over the total in 1921. This covered a total of every state in the union. Figures for 1922 are still incomplete. Following is a summary of reports gathered by International News Service:

New York—The total number of persons killed in this city from January 1 to October 1, of this year is reported to be 618, compared to 855 killed during the 12 months of 1921. There were 1,629 deaths throughout the state last year. The nine months

Columbus, Nov. 17.—Filtration plant engineers and superintendents, meeting here, endorsed the standards of the bureau of public health service, calling for a water supply which, under any analysis to which it is submitted, will test entirely free from sewage contamination. Significance of this move lies in the fact that it marked the initial step in a campaign to be waged by the state department of health to raise the standard of the water supply of approximately 20 Ohio cities.

STEEL MAGNATE OPPOSES WORLD ECONOMIC MEET

Charles M. Schwab Declares It is Not Up to the United States to Act.

NO ALLIANCES HERE

Business is Bound to Improve as Underlying Principles Sound.

Washington, Nov. 17.—While business conditions in the United States and throughout the world generally are unsettled because of uncertainty over the European situation, it is nevertheless not up to the United States to call any world economic conference such as has been proposed from time to time, Charles M. Schwab steel magnate said today in an interview with a International News Service correspondent.

"I am a firm believer," said the millionaire steel head, "in the principles laid down by the men who founded this country of no entangling alliances abroad."

In opposing any general conference for the settlement of the world's industrial ills, Schwab takes a position directly opposite to that of Judge Gary, head of the U. S. Steel corporation who in an address to a gathering of steel men a few weeks ago advocated the calling of such a conference by President Harding.

"This nation," said Schwab, "is endowed with great natural resources which we should turn into gold. And while I believe we should adopt a helpful attitude toward other nations, I do not believe we should take a position of being responsible along with that helplessness."

The immediate passage of the ship subsidy bill by Congress will give a great impetus to American business, Schwab believes. He said his own company, the Bethlehem Steel Company, was forced to give contracts abroad to foreign ships to carry iron ore because there were no American ships available.

Schwab said he was unable to understand why the West and the Midwest, the great grain belt of the country, is opposed to the ship subsidy.

"The margin between good business and bad business," he said, "is only a few per cent. Exports can furnish this margin, and a strong and resourceful merchant marine would make a tremendous difference in the aspect of American business."

Schwab said he was a business optimist. Although conditions both here and abroad are now somewhat unsettled because of European uncertainty, and the uncertainty here at home as to what Congress is going to do, "the underlying principles of American industry are sound and business is bound to improve," he said.

Schwab came to Washington today to appear before the Federal Trade Commission which is investigating the fairness of the Pittsburgh base system of fixing prices on steel.

EX-AMBASSADOR TO FRANCE W. G. SHARP DIES AT ELYRIA

Death Comes Friday Noon and is Caused by High Blood Pressure

Elyria, O., Nov. 17.—Former Ambassador William Graves Sharp died at his home here at 12 o'clock this noon following a short illness.

Mr. Sharp was United States ambassador to France under the Wilson administration and during the world war.

His entire family was at his bedside when the end came and after summoned specialists had given up hope. High blood pressure was given as the cause of his death.

He served as prosecuting attorney of Lorain County and congressman for three terms from this normally Republican district despite being a Democrat. He was born in Mount Gilead, O., March 29, 1859. He is survived by the widow, and five children: George, William Jr., Baxter, Margaret and Effie.

He was made the first chief of the diplomatic corps of Europe. He served for five years during the world war as ambassador to France and did considerable work among the war sufferers as did the widow and members of the family.

Aviation was the hobby of the deceased diplomat. He has large mining interests and a large amount of real estate in Lorain and Elyria.

He resigned as ambassador to France about a year after the world war ended he said, to recuperate from the strenuous times that he had been through. He has been writing a series of books on his diplomatic experiences during the world war. Since resigning as ambassador his health has been failing and three months spent in Europe during the past summer failed to bring the desired results. He has been seriously ill but for a few days and the end came rapidly.

CAST ANNOUNCED FOR LOVE MICROBE TO PLAY IN XENIA

A mysterious band box, smuggled into Xenia by a much more mysterious but charming French widow, offered ample food for drug-store gossip, until the secret was let partially out of the bag by the announcement that the band box contained pain powder and bugs.

The bugs are just as mysterious as their temporary home, for it is learned that they are of such peculiar variety that if bitten by one of them the victim immediately succumbs, and in case it is a bachelor, he is thrown into a fever which when it is cooled, causes the bachelor to propose to the first pretty girl he meets.

The Madame and her bugs will be given an airing at City Hall Theater November 23 and 24, when under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher Federation, public demonstration of the power of the beetles will be given under the fetching title, "The Microbe of Love". About fifty Xenia people will assist Madame in exploiting the powers of her wonderful bugs, and they are now practicing nightly for the event in the Assembly Room of the Court House.

The tentative cast is as follows: Priscilla Prunes, Mrs. Crawford Craig, Lovie Long, Miss Mary McFadden; Ima Fraud, Miss Helen Hurley; Wanta Man, Miss Dorothy Zell; Lillie Lonesome, Mrs. James Wilson; Samantha Loving, Miss Katherine Guilday; Sophia Sweetgum, Miss Ruth Charters; Prudence Albright, Mrs. John L. Beacham; Annabelle Antique, Mrs. Raymond McElfresh; Madame Hyman Cupid, Miss Rose Greer; Bachelors—Billy Bachelor, Fred Flynn; U. B. Careful, Bob Hurley; Simon Shy, Forest Hurley; Lord Tisapity, J. J. Stout; Willie Never, Bob Owens, B. A. Bum, Heber Tullis; Hard Boiled, Harry Williams; A. Quitter, Richard LeSourd; Can't Catch, Emmett Hardy; Never Web, Lawrence Tiffany; Very Bold, Myron Lane; Bobbie Bashful, Harry Connel; Artie Choke, Russel Halstead; Frank Furtie, Leslie Moore; Ben Zine, Walker Whittington; Willie Work, John Wood, Phillip Space, Phillip Moore; Glen Cove, Edward Reutinger; Chorus Girls—Miss Gladys Shadrach, Josephine Wolf, Julia Wolf, Laura Downes, Dorothy Zell, Margaret Prugh, Louise Baldwin, Olivia Cost, Dorothy Hickman, Katherine Guilday, Mary Birch, Frances Lloyd, Janice Owens, Helen McCann and Mary Alexander and Mrs. Russell Halstead; Left Over Club: Piney Melting Heart, Miss Thelma Flanery; Ever Ready, Miss Betty Lichter; Tille Comes, Miss Trina Stiles; Mrs. Jeremiah Henpeck, Mrs. J. Syrup Pepsin Helps Nature Give Relief

Try it when a Laxative is needed and see the wonderful results

IT is not necessary to take a violent physic for so simple an ailment as constipation. Yet many thoughtful parents give mercury in the form of calomel, and coal-tar in the form of phenol when a natural vegetable compound like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will do the work equally well and without danger. People should realize that mercury may salivate and in certain conditions loosen the teeth; that phenolphthalein, by whatever name known and however disguised in candy, may cause dermatitis and other skin eruptions; that salt waters and powders may concentrate the blood, dry up the skin and cause lassitude.

You can take Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin yourself or give it to a babe in arms, as thousands of mothers do every day, with the confidence that it is the safest and best medicine you can use for constipation and such complaints. A teaspoonful will relieve you over night even if the constipation has been chronic for years.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a compound of Egyptian senna and pepsin with pleasant-tasting aromatics, and does not cramp or gripe. Every druggist handles it, and bottles are so generous that the cost amounts to only about a cent a dose. You buy it with the understanding that if it does not do as claimed your money will be refunded. The names of all the ingredients are on the package.

Mrs. A. Arceneaux of Orange, Texas, suffered from constipation for six years and found no relief until she took Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin; and Mrs. Gus Anderson of Ball, Kans., corrected her bowel trouble so that she now eats and sleeps normally. Bring a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin into your own home and let the family use it for constipation, biliousness, wind, gas, headaches, flatulency, and to break up fevers and colds.

The family laxative

ANY FAMILY MAY TRY IT FREE

Thousands of parents are asking themselves, "Where can I find a trustworthy laxative that anyone in the family can use when constipated?" I urge you to try Syrup Pepsin. I will gladly provide a liberal free sample bottle, sufficient for an adequate test. Write me where to send it. Address Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 545 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois. Do it now!

Old Theodore went to Chicago the other day, on a journey that may be his last.

Theodore, or "Ted" as he was known for short, was the faithful old Dobbin who for years and years has hauled one of the express wagons around Xenia. He had recently been hauling one of the wagons of the American Railway Express Company. "Ted" was a victim of the gasoline age, like many of his kind. For the very first time, the express company here has been provided with an automobile truck, a Ford, with a special body, having been consigned here for use. It is expected to eliminate the necessity of both horses and both wagons and one driver.

However, "Babe," companion of "Ted" on his travels up and down Xenia's streets, is still on duty. She, like Ted, will be shipped to Chicago soon. There they will be sold by the company. "Ted" was said to be 18 years old but express company employees believe he was nearer 28. He was considered a smart old Dobbin, and always knew his drivers. "Babe" is about 15 or 16.

LEGION ELEVEN WILL PRACTICE ON FRIDAY

Coach George Baldwin's American Legion football team will practice Friday night at 7:30 o'clock at the Washington St. Park.

The final rehearsal will be held under the high powered lights at the field, and the players will use the "ghost" ball painted white so that it can be seen at night.

With this final practice the Legion hopes to complete conditioning of its team play for the battle with the Osborn Indians Sunday afternoon, when the county independent grid title will be at stake.

Fans see much for the prospects of the locals in the return of Phil Buck, one of the best backfield men ever developed in Xenia who will again be seen in action Sunday. The big fellow has been exceedingly shy of the grid game this season, only participating in one contest, but he has finally consented to take part with his team mates in the coming action. There is nobody the fans would rather see play than Buck, and they are eagerly awaiting his appearance.

With "Tuffy" Fuller, back in the backfield Sunday after a week's lay-off, the offensive strength of the locals will be recruited full. The backfield will be composed of Wilson and Fisher, who displayed themselves to such good advantage last Sunday, "Bud" Owens, the speed merchant, Fuller, Buck and Frank Leahy. The line will be practically the same, with The Borton brothers, the Hoag brothers, Tullis, Thomas, McCoy, Hook, Horen, Derrick, Baker, Walker, Pritchard, Harner, Shroades, Barnett all getting assignments.

The game will start at 2:15 o'clock, with Coach Earl Burger, of Central High handling the whistle.

JAPANESE DENIED NATURALIZATION BY SUPREME COURT.

Japanese are ineligible to American citizenship because they are not members of the "White race," the Supreme Court decided Monday in an opinion handed down by Justice Sutherland. The decision does not cover Japanese who by reason of their birth in this country automatically become citizens.

It holds that the naturalization laws of the country, being affirmative in their application to the White and Negro races, do not encompass the Japanese. The Court refused to admit Japanese were members of "the White race" in contradiction to the popular understanding of that term as embracing members of the Caucasian race and to a long and unbroken line of decisions.

A San Francisco dispatch says the fate of all of California's land legislation rested on the decision of the United States Supreme Court denying naturalization to Japanese, said United States Attorney General Webb.

"Had the Court decided that Japanese could be naturalized, all of our alien land legislation would have fallen, for there is no way in which we could have classified naturalized Japanese under such legislation," Mr. Webb said.

Arguments on four separate actions to test the constitutionality of the alien laws of California are on the United States Supreme Court calendar for November 27.

WOMAN DECLARED A TYPHOID CARRIER.

Dr. A. A. Cairns, chief medical inspector of the Philadelphia Bureau of Health, forwarded a letter to Director Furbush Tuesday urging that Mrs. Mary Maguire, of 2001 East Elkhart Street, said to be a typhoid carrier, be forcibly removed to the Philadelphia General Hospital for medical treatment.

Mrs. Maguire's home has been under a strict quarantine by four policemen, two in the day and two at night, to prevent any person entering or leaving.

This action is deemed necessary by Dr. Cairns because Mrs. Maguire refuses to submit to a culture (medical term) and is regarded as a menace to the health of those with whom she comes into contact.

The woman, who is sixty years old, has conducted a boarding house several years, and in May last Martin Lanagan, a boarder, was taken with typhoid fever and was removed to the Philadelphia General Hospital. Mrs. Maguire was also taken to the institution, but was discharged after some weeks with the understanding that she would do no more cooking and would submit to the taking of a culture every week.

After a short time the woman refused to allow a culture to be taken, and upon the health authorities learning that she was doing the family cooking, the quarantine on her home was established.

Dr. Cairns said that, notwithstanding Philadelphia was being supplied with pure water and pure milk, typhoid fever continued. He said the city was doing everything in its power to stamp out the disease.

Mrs. Maguire refuses to believe that she is a typhoid carrier, although an examination made by an assistant medical examiner and a physician connected with the United States Department of Health indicates that she is one.

MCCORMICK'S SOFT WORDS.

Those be soft words of Senator McCormick, asking the aid of Senator Lodge in destroying the seniority rule now controlling the Senate's law-making machinery. They are fair, pleasant and polite words, but their impact in Old Guard circles of both great parties will be devastating.

All Senator McCormick suggests is that the practice of choosing committee chairmen by seniority in service shall be abandoned.

That a "Republican steering committee" of the Senate be created to keep in touch with a similar committee from the House.

That there be a general reorganization in which the will of the majority may have "true" representation.

That "grave differences" with the majority shall disqualify for a chairmanship, as shall "extreme old age or failing health." That is all Senator McCormick asks.

This is another sign of the times and another of these voices of revolution out of the West, for these are revolutionary suggestion in Senate procedure. Not that there is anything new about them. There is not.

For years this seniority system that automatically, and with the coming of deaths and defeats, moves the congressional veteran, no matter what his brain power, into the headship of committees has been assailed. It has been one of the Senate's "sacred cows." Republicans have writhed under it and the Democrats have been snarling about it through the Sixty-seventh Congress.

The McCormick warning is the voice of the young men to the older men and at the same time a bid for Progressive control of the Senate and of the Republican Party through the Senate. He writes his letter, sets the leaven working and runs away to Europe, leaving the ferment and assured trouble behind him.

ALICE ROOSEVELT'S HUSBAND.

If it be true that Representative Longworth, of Ohio, may prove acceptable as a compromise between the conservatives and progressives as a Republican House leader in the next Congress—or, even, that he might be elevated to the speakership—friends of the popular "gentleman from Cincinnati" would be more than glad on his account. That would be because he has one of the widest circles of friends of any man in Washington, and most of them feel it is about time that Mr. Longworth be given a chance to shine on his own account instead of in the reflected glory of his father-in-law, the late Theodore Roosevelt. Every time a party of tourists enters the spectators' galleries in the House some glib guide will say: "See that baldheaded fellow down there in the third row; that's Roosevelt's son-in-law; that's Longworth; he married Alice Roosevelt." So the popular Representative became a sort of professional son-in-law. His personal ability led his friends to resent the title.

STILL A LONG WAY FROM GETTING HOLD OF THE REINS

1902--Twenty Years Ago--1922

All the members of the county visiting board for the correction and charitable institution of Greene County have tendered their resignations with the exception of one member, Mr. John A. Cisco. The statement of the reason for the wholesale resignation of the members was that each member had a reason of his own.

The Electric Light and Gas Company has had a large force of men at work on the trenches for new gas mains on Home Avenue, and for the past day or two there has been a spirit of discontent among the men. It came to the knowledge of the company that a strike was being contemplated. The men were getting $1.50 and wanted $2. The strike did not make much headway and resulted in the discharge of three men.

Mr. A. W. Tresise, of the Xenia Shoe Factory is the best guesser in the city. He came within two of hitting the nail square on the head in the guessing contest for the number of votes for Secretary of State, his guess being $11,465. He will get a big slice of the money offered in the contest.

Mr. and Mrs. Emery Beal of south of the city will spend a few days in Wilmington. Mrs. Beal will visit and Mr. Beal expects to put in his time hunting.

GRACEFUL FEET

Any woman who is not actually deformed can possess graceful feet and ankles. The size of the feet has nothing to do with it, it is the way they are used the way they are dressed, their general appearance of being well cared for.

If kept them in good condition the feet should be frequently massaged. This stimulates the circulation of the blood, which is always sluggish at the extremities of the body, particularly with anemic people. By its stimulation massage lessens the tendency towards corns and the dozen lesser ailments that afflict the feet and make them ugly. A weekly pedicure is so necessary that I do not wish to call it a beauty treatment though it certainly does its share in beautifying. I should recommend for the busy woman a weekly treatment somewhat as follows. After the bath, while the feet are still warm from their long immersion in hot water, trim all the toenails straight across and cut the two large nails with a slight indentation V. This to prevent that painful affliction, ingrowing toe-nails. With the pointed blade of a nail file clean under the nail and scrape away the loose dead skin which collects around the edges.

If any ragged or large bits show, clip them with your manicure scissors, and if the big toe-nail is too thick rub it down with wet pumice stone.

If there are corns cover them at the beginning of this treatment with a bit of cotton dipped in witch hazel or even warm soapy water. Now shave them with a sharp knife. After this massage each foot and ankle, using both hands and enough vigor to make the feet feel fresh and stimulated.

End by spraying them with toilet vinegar or toilet water and massage again till dry.

F. L. R.—At 17, five feet two, your weight should be 110 pounds.

Discouraged—Sometimes a stubborn case of pimples is the result of infection in which the pimples themselves cause the outbreak. The way to determine whether such is the case is to cleanse the system, therein usually lies the cause for eruptions. If the trouble continues after this, however, try local and antiseptic treatments, such as ointments or powders in which there is sulphur.

Seventeen—The old spots that still remain on the skin must be bleached off now by constant application of lemon juice or peroxide.

Tomorrow—Cold And Hot Baths.

Blackheaded Pimples Quit With S. S. S.

Why? Pimple-Poison Goes When Red Blood-Cells Increase! S. S. S. Builds These Red-Blood-Cells.

You can be sure of this, nature has no substitute for red-blood-cells. Pimple-poison can't live in the red rivers of your blood as long as there are enough rich red-blood-cells in it. More red-blood-cells!

That is what you need when you see pimples staring at you in the mirror. Black-headed pimples are worse! Eczema is worse yet! You can try everything under the sun,—you'll find only one answer, more cell-power in your blood! The tremendous results produced by an increase in red-blood-cells is one of the A. B. C.'s of medical science. Red-cells mean ruddy, lovable complexions. They mean nerve power, because all your nerves are fed by your blood. They mean freedom forever from pimples, from the blackhead pest, from boils, from eczema and skin eruptions, from rheumatism impurities, from that tired, exhausted, run-down feeling. Red-blood-cells are the most important thing in the world to each of us. S. S. S. will build them for you. S. S. S. has been known since 1820, as one of the greatest blood-builders, blood-cleansers and system strengtheners ever produced. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores in two sizes. The larger size bottle is more economical.

S. S. S. makes you feel like yourself again

BOOK REVIEWERS.

The book reviewers of these days—the ones most widely known—hand out the savage, brutal phrase that makes an author groan. They jump upon a tawdry book with frenzied shriek and curse, and if the author were a crook they couldn't treat him worse. They fume and fuss and rant and rail in anger and disdain; it's worse to write a cheap-john tale than 'tis to rob a train. And yet, while critics raise their din, the cheap books hit the spot; I hold it is no downright sin to write some tommyrot. Where one admires the searching yarn dissecting human souls, a thousand read "The Haunted Barn" and kindred rigmaroles. And shall the eager thousand burn the books they most enjoy, because some critic, pale and stern, that hog-wash may annoy? And shall the man who earns his bread by writing red blood dope be crushed by what some critic said, and say farewell to hope? Why should the savage critics cook the lowbrow Mike or Pete? A man may write a jimcrow book, and still be good as wheat.

Today's Talk

sameness and mediocrity mob themselves. Being leaderless qualities, they naturally get nowhere.

But contrast with interest and superiority, they may serve as mile-stones to mark your way.

When we see a chap happily whistling his way past us, as he hobbles along with his one leg and crutches, we at once become aware of our good fortune with two legs and no crutches. This power of contrast shames us and drives us to humility—or should.

In like manner, our own troubles fade and disappear as we come in contact with someone else far worse off than we.

No matter what you are going through, there is someone always who is going through something that would make your difficulties seem pigmies in contrast.

Because we see the dark and discouraging shadows wrapped about failure, we are doubly inspired to seek the light.

Learn to measure experience. Contrast events as they mature. Place the old against the new. Then build better than either.

Contrast is a god-power to the inventor. No sooner does he bring out something that is an improvement than he immediately sets about plans to surpass his work.

The farmer boy contrasts his quiet, summed-up days of country toil with the exciting tales of city life—whereas the city chap dreams of the leisure of the out of doors.

We think too much in cross-sections instead of circumferences.

It is a valuable asset, however, to be able to contrast conditions, circumstances and modes of thought—and to make the pictures thus formed, arouse you to your most worthy efforts.

Because it is dark and gloomy today, we shall welcome and love sunny tomorrow all the more.

PERSONNEL WORK IS EXPLAINED TO BUSINESS WOMEN

Well versed in a subject especially appealing to business and professional women, Mrs. James Hoskins, a member of the Personnel Department of Antioch College, Yellow Springs, addressed the members of the Xenia Business and Professional Women's Club, at the regular monthly meeting held at the First Presbyterian Church, Thursday evening.

Mrs. Hoskins discussed and explained personnel work in general, dealing with the increased interest developed in this new line of activity. At first, according to the speaker, the interest in the new phase of employment and management was one-sided, the factor of social progress not being as rapid as that of the electric and machine inventions. Personnel work is still new, Mrs. Hoskins stated, and fundamentally deals with placing the best persons in the positions for which they are best fitted.

The problem of "misfits" in industrial positions is one that constantly confronts the personnel workers, centralized employment coming into use in overcoming this and other irregularities.

Only during the past year has the term "personnel" been applied to the new branch of industrial employment. The work of the department includes the selection, employment and placement of the workers, according to Mrs. Hoskins, and the adjustment of wages, in cooperation with factory and business officials. The matter of transfers and promotions is also in charge of the personnel department, the members of the personnel staff considering and trying out various employees in various departments to find the position for which they are fitted. This method is especially worked before an employee is "fired," giving him every chance to make good in some department. The method is only fair, stated Mrs. Hoskins, and is one of the valuable assets of the personnel department.

The various phases of the personnel department, the health department of industrial plants, and its management, physical examinations upon entrance and while employed in the shop, vocational training, and teaching of instructors, were all told in an interesting manner by Mrs. Hoskins.

Mrs. Hoskins told of the Antioch plan, and how the personnel work is applied to the school and the management of students. Upon their entrance in the school, a large per cent of the students have only a vague idea as to what they want to do or are best fitted for. It is then the work of the personnel department to place them in the best positions, the inexperienced being given simple jobs.

Mrs. Hoskins' address followed the club dinner, served by the women of the church, in addition to a short business meeting and parliamentary drill in charge of the club. Parliamentary Miss Nellie Fletcher, assisted by Miss Henrietta Logan.

Miss Fletcher also gave a report of the session of the state officers of the Business and Professional Women's Clubs, she attended recently at Springfield, to which she was sent as a delegate from the club.

The address of the evening was followed by another business session, when plans were made for the club to hold a rummage sale, Saturday, November 25, when articles of every description will be offered for sale. The names of several new members were admitted to the vote of the club, the membership now nearing the 80 mark.

LEG IS FRACTURED IN GRID PRACTICE

The lad was taken to McClellan Hospital where an X-ray picture of the break was taken Thursday. It is thought that it is not serious, but will keep him out of football for the rest of the season.

Botorff was one of the most faithful members of Coach Earl Burgher's grid squad. He practiced faithfully with the team last year also and both seasons has been used as a substitute guard and in the backfield. He is a junior at Central High and is slated for a regular berth on the first string eleven for next year.

RACE TRACK FOR DOGS

Cincinnati, Nov. 17.—A racing track for dogs, where greyhounds will chase a mechanical rabbit, is to be established in Newport, Ky., if a suitable location can be procured. It was learned following a conference between promoters of the scheme and Mayor Joseph Hermann.

"Gee-Whiz! How it Hurts!" →The Pain in My Foot!←

"Sometimes it is in my arm. Merciful Heaven, how my back hurts in the morning!" It's all due to an overabundance of that poison, called uric acid. The kidneys are not able to get rid of it. Such conditions you can readily overcome, and prolong life by taking the advice of Dr. Pierce, which is "keep the kidneys in good order."

"Avoid too much meat, alcohol or tea. Drink plenty of pure water, preferably hot water, before meals, and drive the uric acid out of the system by taking Anuric." This can be obtained at almost any drug store.

Send a bottle of water to the chemist at Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., and you will receive free medical advice as to whether the kidneys are affected. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog, you suffer from backache, sick-headache, dizzy spells, or twinges and pains of lumbago, rheumatism or gout; or sleep is disturbed two or three times a night, take heed, before too late. Get Anuric (anti-uric-acid), for it will put new life into your kidneys and your entire system. Ask your nearest druggist for it or send Dr. Pierce ten cents for trial package.

Dublin, Nov. 16.—The Dublin municipal corporation today appealed to the free state government to release Miss Mary MacSwiney, who has been on a hunger strike since she was arrested in a raid on a republican war council in this city, Nov. 4.

The dvectors at Mount Joy prison refuse to give any information about Miss MacSwiney's condition. Her friends claim that she is in such a serious state that death may be expected at any hour. This is denied by the prison authorities.

At Mount Joy prison it was stated that Miss MacSwiney is a "military" prisoner and therefore visitors are not allowed to see her.

Father And Son Both Restored By Tanlac

"Tanlac certainly gives a lot for the money," said W. E. Reese, well-known grocer of 313 N. College St., Carlisle, Pa.

"Following a bad case of flu I found myself in such a weak, nervous, run-down condition I could hardly attend to business. I was in this shape a year and could make no headway towards getting back my strength. My stomach was all out of order. I had no appetite, and weighed only a hundred and twenty pounds."

"A few bottles of Tanlac gave me complete health with a gain of thirteen pounds. I also have a twelve-year-old son in school who had a nervous trouble and was in very bad shape. Soon after starting him on Tanlac his troubles disappeared and he also gained ten or twelve pounds. Tanlac certainly gives the desired results."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

At first, according to the speaker, the interest in the new phase of employment and management was one-sided, the factor of social progress not being as rapid as that of the electric and machine inventions. Personnel work is still new, Mrs. Hoskins stated, and fundamentally deals with placing the best persons in the positions for which they are best fitted.

The problem of "misfits" in industrial positions is one that constantly confronts the personnel workers, centralized employment coming into use in overcoming this and other irregularities.

Only during the past year has the term "personnel" been applied to the new branch of industrial employment. The work of the department includes the selection, employment and placement of the workers, according to Mrs. Hoskins, and the adjustment of wages, in cooperation with factory and business officials. The matter of transfers and promotions is also in charge of the personnel department, the members of the personnel staff sonsidering and trying out various employees in various departments to find the position for which they are fitted. This method is especially worked before an employee is "fired," giving him every chance to make good in some department. The method is only fair, stated Mrs. Hoskins, and is one of the valuable assets of the personnel department.

The various phases of the personnel department, the health department of industrial plants, and its management, physical examinations upon entrance and while employed in the shop, vocational training, and teaching of instructors, were all told in an interesting manner by Mrs. Hoskins.

Mrs. Hoskins told of the Antioch plan, and how the personnel work is applied to the school and the management of students. Upon their entrance in the school, a large per cent of the students have only a vague idea as to what they want to do or are best fitted for. It is then the work of the personnel department to place them in the best positions, the inexperienced being given simple jobs.

Mrs. Hoskins' address followed the club dinner, served by the women of the church, in addition to a short business meeting, and parliamentary drill, in charge of the club. Parliamentary Miss Nellie Fletcher, assisted by Miss Henrietta Logan.

Miss Fletcher also gave a report of the session of the state officers of the Business and Professional Women's Clubs, she attended recently at Springfield, to which she was sent as a delegate from the club.

The address of the evening was followed by another business session, when plans were made for the club to hold a rummage sale, Saturday, November 25, when articles of every description will be offered for sale, for the benefit of the club treasury. The names of several new members were admitted to the vote of the club, the membership now nearing the 80 mark.

LEG IS FRACTURED IN GRID PRACTICE

The lad was taken to McClellan Hospital where an X-ray picture of the break was taken Thursday. It is thought that it is not serious, but will keep him out of football for the rest of the season.

Botorff was one of the most faithful members of Coach Earl Burgner's grid squad. He practiced faithfully with the team last year also and both seasons has been used as a substitute guard and in the backfield. He is a junior at Central High and is slated for a regular berth on the first string eleven for next year.

RACE TRACK FOR DOGS

Cincinnati, Nov. 17.—A racing track for dogs, where greyhounds will chase a mechanical rabbit, is to be established in Newport, Ky. if a suitable location can be procured. It was learned following a conference between promoters of the scheme and Mayor Joseph Hermann.

"Gee-Whiz! How it Hurts—
—The Pain in My Foot!"

"Sometimes it is in my arm. Merciful Heaven, how my back hurts in the morning!" It's all due to an overabundance of that poison, called uric acid. The kidneys are not able to get rid of it. Such conditions you can readily overcome, and prolong life by taking the advice of Dr. Pierce, which is "Keep the kidneys in good order."

"Avoid too much meat, alcohol or tea. Drink plenty of pure water, preferably hot water, before meals, and drive the uric acid out of the system by taking Anuric." This can be obtained at almost any drug store.

Send a bottle of water to the chemist at Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., and you will receive free medical advice as to whether the kidneys are affected. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog, you suffer from backache, sick-headache, dizzy spells, or twinges and pains of lumbago, rheumatism or gout; or sleep is disturbed two or three times a night, take heed, before too late. Get Anuric (anti-uric-acid), for it will put new life into your kidneys and your entire system. Ask your nearest druggist for it or send Dr. Pierce ten cents for trial package.

SUITS ARE FILED AGAINST PURCHASE OF HOUSTON ESTATE

London, Ohio, Nov. 17.—Suits aggregating more than $661,000 have been filed in Common Pleas Court here against Richard S. Woodrow, Toledo purchaser of the estate of the late Foster B. Houston, South Charleston. The property is located in Madison County, north of here.

One suit, filed by Walter B. Beebe, Columbus, receiver of the Houston Farms Company, seeks judgment against Woodrow for $445,012.50 for foreclosure of mortgages appointment of a receiver and equitable relief. Edith O. Woodrow, wife of the defendant, and Harry J. Nichols, also are named as defendants.

The petition lists a number of notes, secured by mortgages on the estate and said to be due the plaintiff, and it also is alleged that Woodrow has failed to pay taxes and assessments on the property for the last half of 1921.

Another suit filed by the Citizens' Savings and Trust Company, Columbus trustees under the wills of Leon H. Houston of Edwin D. Houston asks for judgment of $216,833.32 on notes of that amount secured by mortgages on land now held by Woodrow.

MARY MACSWINEY IS NEAR DEATH

Dublin, Nov. 16.—The Dublin municipal corporation today appealed to the free state government to release Miss Mary MacSwiney, who has been on a hunger strike since she was arrested in a raid on a republican war council in this city, Nov. 4.

The two doctors at Mount Joy prison refuse to give any information about Miss MacSwiney's condition. Her friends claim that she is in such a serious state that death may be expected at any hour. This is denied by the prison authorities.

At Mount Joy prison it was stated that Miss MacSwiney is a "military" prisoner and therefore visitors are not allowed to see her.

KIPLING IS RECOVERING

London, Nov. 17.—The condition of Rudyard Kipling, famous writer, who was operated upon was pronounced satisfactory. Kipling is recovering.

INFLECT HEAVY FINE

Newark, O., Nov. 17.—The heaviest fine to date here was inflicted on Courtney Bostwick, charged with bootlegging. Amount $700 each on two counts.

Father And Son Both Restored By Tanlac

"Tanlac certainly gives a lot for the money," said W. E. Reese, well-known grocer of 313 N. College St., Carlisle, Pa.

"Following a bad case of flu I found myself in such a weak, nervous, run-down condition I could hardly attend to business. I was in this shape a year and could make no headway towards getting back my strength. My stomach was all out of order. I had no appetite, and weighed only a hundred and twenty two pounds."

"A few bottles of Tanlac gave me complete health with a gain of thirteen pounds. I also have a twelve-year-old son in school who had a nervous trouble and was in very bad shape. Soon after starting him on Tanlac his troubles disappeared and he also gained ten or twelve pounds. Tanlac certainly gives the desired results."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

A DELIGHTFUL ROW

"My wife had suffered from stomach and liver trouble for many years and had taken medicine enough to sink a ship; so when I brought home a bottle of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, on the advice of my employer, she refused to take it. Her liver trouble hadn't helped her disposition any. We had a big row, but she took it the next week. Her ailments have all disappeared." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Sayre & Hemphill and druggists everywhere.

BONUS MUST NOT BE MIXED UP WITH THE LIQUOR QUESTION

"The ex-service men will never consent to having the light wine and beer controversy mixed up with the soldiers' bonus. The bonus will stand or fall on its own merits."

This was the statement Friday morning of C. L. Darlington, former State Commander of the American Legion, referring to the attempt to drag the bonus into the wet and dry issue by proposing a tax on light wine and beer to finance the bonus, and then to get Congress to pass a bill defining what is alcoholic liquors.

The proposal to finance the bonus by a heavy tax on light wines and beer is being brought up by wet leaders and indications are that a fight along that line will be made when the bonus bill is brought up. The proposal is aimed to placate President Harding whose veto of the bonus was based on an apparent difficulty in financing it.

It is pointed out that the proposal to tax light wines and beer for that purpose would be sufficient to get President Harding to sign the bonus bill, depending, however, on Congress defining alcoholic liquors and ruling that light wines and beer are of not sufficient alcoholic content to be affected by the Volstead act.

HELEN RESENTS GRACE HARTER
CHAPTER 29

"Oh, Doreen, I have something so funny to tell you!" Grace Harter came in a few days after the last incident, and hardly waited to reply to my greetings before she burst out in exclamation.

"Good! I was rather in the dumps. Mrs. Page is at the dentist. I think she didn't like it because I didn't go with her; but I couldn't bear the thought of sitting cooped up there an hour or two waiting. What is it?"

"Helen Ralstrom is jealous of me!" She threw her head back and laughed gayly. "The little idiot!"

"What right has she to be jealous of anyone? I suppose you refer to Walter. But Grace had called her a 'little idiot' that didn't look as if I had anything to fear from Grace. I never could quite dispossess my mind of the thought that she still cared for Walter."

"No right! But me of all people! Again I felt a little glow. 'I dropped in, thought I'd follow up my telephone call, you know. I am a great believer in system. I found them resting, so I wasn't bothering them, and so I pitched in. I flirted abominably with him, Doreen, fussed over him, criticised his tie, and was really the solicitous female. Her black looks egged me on, and I just kept it up. Then I said: 'Walt, I would telephone you often we are such old friends, but I never do because I hate to interrupt you. You know how my heart is set on your success.' I wish you could have seen her as she said: 'Don't flatter yourself too much. Grace, that you are the only woman who is interested in Walter. He has other friends that are not afraid to telephone.'"

"Now, I'm jealous," I exclaimed. "Walt, my boy, tell me who has been trying to steal your faithful heart from me?"

"What in the world did Walter say to such rubbish?" I asked now laughing.

"Oh, he was fussed, showed it plainly. 'Wish I knew,' he said, 'some woman telephoned me the other day. Helen answered the phone and has ragged me about it ever since.' I thought I would get her goat as the boys say, and you see I did. I'll bet a nickel they quarreled over it."

"That she dares question my husband's actions isn't pleasant for me," I replied.

"It's good for you to know he allows it," Grace said soberly. "You can't fight in the dark and you have got to fight Helen Ralstrom, her influence over Walt. And you count me in on your side, Doreen. She doesn't play fair! We will have to make her—if we can."

"You think—" I stopped. I could not put into words my distrust. "I don't think anything—yet. But Walt is a man, isn't he? An impressionable one, and an artist. She has good material to work on."

"I thought you liked Helen," I ventured.

"You made a mistake. I pretended to like her, shall keep right on pretending. It is the only way I'll get a chance to help. When I left I was sweet as sugar to her, flattered her and the picture. Just the same she'll give Walt a bad half hour or I miss my guess. And he doesn't like bad half hours, as you must know by this time; can't bear anyone to find fault with him."

I began to see what Grace was driving at. Helen would be cross. Walter would resent it. Only too well did I know how little he could bear criticism or fault finding.

"Oh, I nearly forgot! I made Walt promise to give a studio party soon. An evening party. Of course he'll have her, but he can't devote himself to her when he is the host. Let's get him to have it a custom party, Doreen. I'm dying for a good time."

"That would be fun," I answered, "but it's hard for me to get away while his mother is here. She resents being left alone."

"Nonsense! She's got Fido, hasn't she?"

Mrs. Page came in just then. She greeted Grace in her most freezing manner, while Grace impishly inquired if Fido had also had his teeth looked after.

"I see you have the little darling with you," she said.

Mrs. Page made no reply, but I knew from the way she sailed from the room, I should hear another tirade against my friends, Grace in particular.

Tomorrow—Mrs. Page is ill.

HELEN RESENTE GRACE HARTER
CHAPTER 29

"Oh, Doreen, I have something so funny to tell you!" Grace Harter came in a few days after the last incident, and hardly waited to reply to my greetings before she burst out in exclamation.

"Good! I was rather in the dumps. Mrs. Page is at the dentist. I think she didn't like it because I didn't go with her; but I couldn't bear the thought of sitting cooped up there an hour or two waiting. What is it?"

"Helen Ralstrom is jealous of me!" She threw her head back and laughed gayly. "The little idiot!"

"What right has she to be jealous of anyone? I suppose you refer to Walter. But Grace had called her a 'little idiot' that didn't look as if I had anything to fear from Grace. I never could quite dispossess my mind of the thought that she still cared for Walter."

"No right! But me of all people! Again I felt a little glow. 'I dropped in, thought I'd follow up my telephone call, you know. I am a great believer in system. I found them resting, so knew I wasn't bothering Walter, and so I pitched in. I flirted abominably with him, Doreen, fussed over him, criticised his tie, and was really the solicitous female. Her black looks egged me on, and I just kept it up. Then I said: 'Walt, I would telephone you often we are such old friends, but I never do because I hate to interrupt you. You know how my heart is set on your success.' I wish you could have seen her as she said: 'Don't flatter yourself too much, Grace, that you are the only woman who is interested in Walter. He has other friends that are not afraid to telephone.'"

"Now, I'm jealous," I exclaimed. "Walt, my boy, tell me who has been trying to steal your faithful heart from me?"

"What in the world did Walter say to such rubbish?" I asked now laughing.

"Oh, he was fussed, showed it plainly. 'Wish I knew,' he said, 'some woman telephoned me the other day. Helen answered the phone and has ragged me about it ever since.' I thought I would get her goat as the boys say, and you see I did. I'll bet a nickel they quarreled over it."

"That she dares question my husband's actions isn't pleasant for me," I replied.

"It's good for you to know he allows it," Grace said soberly. "You can't fight in the dark and you have got to fight Helen Ralstrom, her influence over Walt. And you count me in on your side, Doreen. That girl isn't out in the open. She doesn't play fair! We will have to make her—if we can."

"You think—" I stopped. I could not put into words my distrust. "I don't think anything—yet. But Walt is a man, isn't he? An impressionable one, and an artist. She has good material to work on."

"I thought you liked Helen," I ventured.

"You made a mistake. I pretended to like her, shall keep right on pretending. It is the only way I'll get a chance to help. When I left I was sweet as sugar to her flattered her and the picture. Just the same she'll give Walt a bad half hour or I miss my guess. And he doesn't like bad half hours, as you must know by this time; can't bear anyone to find fault with him."

I began to see what Grace was driving at. Helen would be cross. Walter would resent it. Only too well did I know how little he could bear criticism or fault finding.

"Oh, I nearly forgot! I made Walt promise to give a studio party soon. An evening party. Of course he'll have her, but he can't devote himself to her when he is the host. Let's get him to have it a custom party, Doreen. I'm dying for a good time."

"That would be fun," I answered, "but it's hard for me to get away while his mother is here. She resents being left alone."

"Nonsense! She's got Fido, hasn't she?"

Mrs. Page came in just then. She greeted Grace in her most freezing manner, while Grace impishly inquired if Fido had also had his teeth looked after.

"I see you have the little darling with you," she said.

Mrs. Page made no reply, but I knew from the way she sailed from the room, I should hear another tirade against my friends, Grace in particular.

Tomorrow—Mrs. Page is ill.
